- ❖ Bank of Ghana Targets September Launch for New Digital Asset Regulatory Framework: Ghana remains committed to launching a Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) in the medium term, but for now, the immediate focus will shift to tightening oversight of unregulated digital asset platforms such as cryptocurrency exchanges, according to Dr Johnson Asiamah, Governor of the Bank of Ghana. The Governor's comments mark a notable shift in central bank priorities. While CBDCs remain a strategic ambition, unregulated digital platforms, particularly cryptocurrency exchanges, pose a more urgent financial integrity risk. According to the Governor, a dedicated regulatory unit has been established within the Bank, and work is accelerating in partnership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to introduce a digital asset regulatory framework.
